City Seeks Public Arts Commission Volunteers

Maple Valley, Wash. – September 4, 2020 – The City of Maple Valley is currently recruiting to fill open positions on the Public Arts Commission and invites individuals with an arts background to apply for this rewarding position serving your city.

Boards and Commissions that represent the City of Maple Valley are responsible for specialized tasks that provide invaluable aid to City Council in making sound decisions for the benefit of the City and its residents. Public Arts Commissioners make recommendations to City Council on all matters related to the arts in the community. The Public Arts Commission meets six times per year from 6:00pm to 8:00pm on dates to be determined at the first meeting scheduled for early 2021 with occasional special meetings and workshops scheduled as needed. At this time Public Arts Commission meetings will be held virtually via Zoom.

The City of Maple Valley is currently recruiting for the following positions:

- Three regular voting members to serve two-year terms (2021-2022) and who reside within the city limits of Maple Valley
- One non-voting member who works in Maple Valley to serve a two-year term (2021-2022) but is not required to reside within the city limits
- Two non-voting alternate members to serve two-year terms (2021-2022) and who resides within the city limits
- Two student representatives to serve one-year terms (2021) who are currently enrolled in high school or college and who live within the Tahoma School District boundaries.

If you are interested in serving your community through this unique opportunity please download the application on the City's website under Employment Opportunities at www.maplevalleywa.gov/departments-services/human-resources/employment-opportunities

Applications can be submitted by email to human.resources@maplevalleywa.gov or by mailing it to the address below:

Attn.: HR
City of Maple Valley
P.O. Box 320
Maple Valley, WA 98038

Applications will be accepted until the positions are filled. Applicant interviews will be held at a City Council meeting to be determined at a future date. All appointments to the Commission will be made by the City Council members.
