City Seeks Economic Development Commission Members

Maple Valley, Wash. – October 1, 2020 - The Maple Valley City Council is currently recruiting three individuals who have economic development experience to serve as an Economic Development Commissioner. Each of the open positions must fill one of the following areas of expertise:

1. Real Estate Developer
2. Workforce Development; Small Business Development Center; Human Resources or a Staffing Agency
3. Financial Institution (bank, credit union, CDFI, or other financial institution)

All three of the open Commission positions are currently filled by individuals who will serve out the remainder of their two-year terms ending on December 31, 2020, however, all of these current Commissioners can re-apply for the same Commission position again. Should these current Commission members be selected by the City Council to serve again, they will begin serving their new terms in January 2021.

The Economic Development Commission makes recommendations to City Council by researching and studying topics related to economic development. In addition, the Commission will provide an annual report to the Council to ensure transparency. The Commission meets monthly on the third Tuesday of the month from 7:30 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. at Maple Valley City Hall, 22017 SE Wax Road, Suite 200. The EDC meetings are being held virtually via Zoom meeting at this time. All meetings are open to the public.

If you are interested in serving your community through this unique opportunity, please download the application on the City's website at www.maplevalleywa.gov/city-government/citizen-boards-commissions-and-committees/position-openings Applications should be submitted to human.resources@maplevalleywa.gov or mailed to the address below

Attn: HR
City of Maple Valley
P.O. Box 320
Maple Valley, WA 98038.

Applications will be accepted until positions are filled. Applicant interviews will be held before the City Council at a future date.

Question concerning these positions should be directed to Tim Morgan, Economic Development Manager or Andrew Dacuag, Deputy City Clerk at (425) 413-8800.
