to reference the most current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised. Training to be provided within the first quarter following the municipal general election.

2.15A.030 Organization of City Council. Pursuant to State law, the City of Maple Valley is represented by seven publicly elected City Councilmembers and the Councilmembers elect from among the membership a Mayor to serve as the Chair of the Council. The Mayor retains all rights, privileges, and immunities of a member of the Council.

A. Swearing in of New Councilmembers. New Councilmembers shall be sworn in by a member of the judiciary, the City Clerk, or any other officer or notary public authorized to administer oaths, without charge therefor. The oath the oath of office must be taken as the last step of qualification as defined in RCW 29A.04.133 but may be taken either: (a) Up to ten days prior to the scheduled date of assuming office; or (b) At the last regular meeting of the governing body of the applicable county, city, town, or special district held before the winner is to assume office. The term of incumbents ends and the term of successors begins after the successor is elected and qualified, and the term commences immediately after December 31st following the election.

B. Election of Mayor and Deputy Mayor. At the first meeting of the year following the general election to fill City Council positions, the Council shall elect a Mayor and Deputy Mayor for a term of two years. The election process shall be as follows:

(1) The City Clerk shall serve as the Chair for the nomination process for the position of Mayor, which position shall be elected first. The Chair will repeat each nomination until all nominations have been made. When it appears that no one else wishes to make any further nominations, the Chair will ask again for further nominations and if there are none, the Chair will declare the nominations closed. A motion to close the nominations is not necessary.

(2) No one Councilmember may nominate more than one person for a given office until every member wishing to nominate a candidate has an opportunity to do so.

(3) Nominations do not require a second.

(4) After nominations have been closed, each nominee will have an opportunity to speak. If the nominee chooses to speak, it may not be for longer than 2 minutes. Then voting for Mayor will take place in the order nominations were made. Councilmembers will be asked for a voice vote and a raise of hands. candidate receives a majority vote of the entire membership. A Mayor shall be elected before the Office of Deputy Mayor is opened for nominations.

(6) A tie vote results in a failed nomination.

(7) If there is only one nominee for the position, the Chair will declare the nominee elected.

(8) Once the Mayor has been elected, the City Clerk will turn the chair over to the Mayor and nominations and election of the Deputy Mayor shall proceed as described in steps 1 through 7 above.

2.15A.040 Removal of Mayor or Deputy Mayor from Office. Once a mayor or deputy mayor has been elected at the first council meeting of the biennium, that person may only be removed from the office of mayor or deputy mayor, prior to the expiration of the biennium, by a majority plus one vote of the entire membership (a vote of five members). Any such removal by the council of the mayor or deputy mayor shall have no effect on that person's ability to continue to hold his/her office as councilmember. In case of removal, the council shall immediately elect a new mayor or deputy mayor from among its members. Prior to any vote to remove a mayor or deputy mayor, the council shall meet in executive session with the mayor or deputy mayor to receive and evaluate the complaint or charge against the mayor or deputy mayor that provides the possible basis for removal. However, upon the request of the mayor or deputy mayor, the discussion and/or evaluation of the complaint or charge shall occur in open session.

2.15A.050 Vacancy. In the event the Mayor is unable to serve the remainder of the term, a new mayor shall be elected at the next regular meeting. In the event the Deputy Mayor is unable to serve the remainder of the term, a new Deputy Mayor shall be elected at the next regular meeting.

E. Public Testimony

(1) Rules for Public Testimony during Public Hearings. The following rules shall be observed during any legislative Public Hearing (one that is not related to a quasi-judicial matter):

- (a) There is no requirement for an oath for a legislative public hearing. Individuals will be allowed three minutes to speak (or five minutes when presenting the official position of a recognized organization), and each organization shall have only one five-minute presentation. If a speaker purports to speak for an organization, club, or others by suggesting that a number of persons support a position, then such person may be asked to state how that position was developed by the group.
- (b) The Clerk, or his/her designee, shall be the timekeeper. All public hearings are recorded.
- (c) Public Hearings shall begin as close as possible to, but not earlier than, the time established for the hearing in the agenda and any applicable public notice. The Chair shall declare the public hearing open, and ask for the City staff presentation. Following questions of staff by the Council, any interested person may then be heard for three minutes each. All speakers who sign up on the Public Hearing Roster provided by the City Clerk will be invited to speak before other speakers are invited.

The Chair shall recognize staff comments and questions from the Council, if any, at the conclusion of each speaker's remarks. The Council may alter the time limits of speakers upon a vote prior to the opening of the hearing.

- (d) Addressing the Council. During a public hearing, no person shall be allowed to address the Council while it is in session without the recognition of the Chair.

(2) Rules for Quasi-judicial Hearings. All quasi-judicial proceedings shall be recorded. The following additional rules shall be observed during any quasi-judicial public hearing:

- (a) Public Hearings shall begin as close as possible to, but not earlier than, the time established for the hearing in the agenda and any applicable public notice. The Chair shall declare the public hearing open. The City Attorney shall ask each Councilmember to reveal ex parte oral or written communications that occurred prior to the hearing, and will ask each Councilmember to disclose any bias or other potential appearance of fairness issues. Councilmembers shall disclose any ex parte communications, bias, or conflicts of interest. After all disclosures are made, the Chair will ask if any person in the audience wishes to make an appearance of fairness challenge to any Councilmember, or to rebut the contents of an ex parte communication disclosed by any Councilmember.

- (b) If so, the challenging/rebutting member of the audience will come forward to the lectern and make his/her challenge/rebuttal. The person offering the challenge/rebuttal will be asked to identify him/herself, and state his/her address. Rebuttals must directly respond to the substance of a disclosed ex parte communication. After all challenges have been made, the Chair may ask the City Attorney to advise the Council if any Councilmember should be disqualified from participating in the hearing. This may be done in public or Executive Session. Any Councilmember choosing to step down as a result of a challenge shall leave the room and not return until after the conclusion of the quasi-judicial matter. After any recused Councilmember leaves, the quasi-judicial hearing shall proceed as follows.
- (c) The Chair shall ask for the City staff presentation, if applicable. Following questions of staff by the Council, the Council shall determine how much speaking time to allow the proponents and opponents of a proposal collectively, which time shall not be less than ten (10) minutes per side but could be significantly longer depending on how many people wish to speak. The applicant or petitioner shall make its presentation and may elect to reserve some of its time for rebuttal. Following the presentation of the applicant or petitioner, the person(s) representing an opposing view shall be allowed to speak to the issue.
- (d) The Chair shall recognize staff comments and questions from the Council, if any, at the conclusion of each speaker's remarks. After the opponents time has been used, the applicant shall be given an opportunity to rebut information and/or argument presented by the opponent(s) or staff to the extent that the applicant reserved time to do so. This opportunity for rebuttal shall not be used to present new information or to address subjects other than issues raised by the opponent(s) or staff. After both sides have had a fair opportunity to present their cases, and the Council's questions have been answered, the Chair shall declare the public hearing closed. The Council may, however, decide to allow the record to remain open for purposes of written materials to be presented to the Council for a period of time declared by the Council. This shall be decided by the Council and requires a majority vote. Once the public hearing is closed, no person may introduce new substantive information without the Council reopening the public hearing.

- (e) If the hearing is a quasi-judicial hearing, each speaker will be required to testify under oath.
- (f) Addressing the Council. During a quasi-judicial hearing, no person shall be allowed to address the Council while it is in session without the recognition of the Chair.

(3) The public hearing rules set forth herein are intended to provide general guidance to the city council as to how both legislative and quasi-judicial hearings should be conducted. They are not intended to be binding upon the city council, which may see fit to alter the procedures for a particular hearing. These procedures are not intended to convey any legal right for a person to be heard by the city council in a manner that is not already required by some other law.

F. Agenda Preparation.

(2) Membership: The Audit Committee shall have a maximum of three members. Appointments shall be made by the Mayor subject to approval by the Council.

A majority vote of the entire Council membership is required to permanently rescind any of the provisions unless State law requires otherwise.
